

Hey Mom I Wanna Go Home!

This is a camp classic that has many different variations and dozens of different verses. The opening measure can be adjusted to fit almost any camp name or you can use the traditional, non-specific version shown below.

Oh they say that at our scout camp the cof-fee's migh-ty fine. It's Hey, Ma! I wan-na go, back where the toi-lets flow! Hey, Ma! I wan-na go home!

Other Verses:

Oh, they say that at our scout camp the biscuits are mighty fine.
One rolled off the table and killed a pal of mine!

Oh, they say that at our scout camp the tents are mighty fine.
They're made of old newspapers and poison ivy vine!

Oh, they say that at our scout camp the staff is mighty fine.
They act like Adolf Hitler and look like Frankenstein!

Oh, they say that at our scout camp the chicken's mighty fine.
One jumped off the table and started marking time!
